

LAGOS LOGIC

YOUR CHECKOUT HAS A GATEMAN.

And he's chasing your students away.

YOU KNOW HIM

"Oga, who you come see?"

Write your name. Drop your ID. Wait while I call your host.

By the third question, visitors start turning back.

ONLINE, THE GATE IS YOUR CHECKOUT

About 7 in 10 online carts never get paid for.

That's the average across 50 studies of online checkouts.

They wanted it. The gate stopped them.

THE GATEMAN'S QUESTIONS · 1 OF 2

Why people walk away

"Why is there a ₦2,500 fee on top?"

40 PERCENT · EXTRA COSTS

Show the full price, fees included, on the sales page.

"Can I trust this
card?"

19 PERCENT · TRUST

Use a payment page people know. Offer bank transfer too. Show your name and number.

"Create an account? I just want to pay."

18 PERCENT · FORCED ACCOUNT

Let them pay first. Create their login for them after.

THE GATEMAN'S QUESTIONS · 2 OF 2

Why people walk away

"Why are there 3 pages of forms?"

17 PERCENT · LONG CHECKOUT

Before payment, ask for name, email and WhatsApp. Nothing else.

"Error. Try again later."

17 PERCENT · SITE ERRORS

Test your own payment link on a cheap phone every week.

ON WHATSAPP TOO

Same gateman. Different uniform.

"Send your full name, email, phone number, occupation, state, how you heard about us and your goals for the program."

Before they've even paid. Ask for 3 things now. Collect the rest after payment.

COUNT YOUR GATES

From “I want in” to paid

- 1 They see the price
- 2 They tap pay
- 3 They get the class link

3 steps. Every extra step is a gateman.
