ONE REVIEW

Trustpilot reviewer

Aug 2026

I spent over £14,000 with [the company] and, in my experience, received nothing of meaningful value in return, not even genuine opportunities to quote for work, let alone a realistic chance of winning projects.

Over £1,000 spent. Seven months. Zero leads. AVOID.

THE LINE THAT SAYS IT ALL

Trustpilot reviewer

Aug 2026

I wasn't paying [the company] to generate salespeople wanting to sell to me. I was paying them to generate customers wanting to buy from me.

WHAT WENT WRONG

They paid for activity. They wanted customers.

Clicks, reports, and “leads” that were really other sellers.

Nobody agreed in writing what a result was.

THEIR OWN ADVICE

Trustpilot reviewer

Aug 2026

Ask exactly how much of your monthly payment will actually be spent with Google/Meta. Ask exactly what [the company] keeps. Get the definition of a "lead" in writing.

BEFORE YOU SIGN ANYTHING

4 questions

- 1 What part of my money reaches Google or Meta?
- 2 What counts as a lead or a result, in writing?
- 3 What happens if the results don't come?
- 4 Can I leave without a penalty?
